ST. LOUIS (Sept. 30, 2020) –Midwest BankCentre, St. Louis' second largest locally owned community bank, recently opened a loan office in O'Fallon, Ill., to provide a convenient local presence to clients living and working in the region's Metro East communities.

"Our strategic direction is rooted in ensuring all people in our region have access to mainstream banking and credit at competitive prices. This exciting expansion affirms our commitment to serving businesses, nonprofits, families and individuals living and working in the Metro East as we seek to expand our community impact," said Orvin T.
