

NEWS RELEASE

For more information, contact Marie A. Casey, Casey Communications, Inc., 314-721-2828.

Christina Dancy Joins Midwest BankCentre as Assistant Vice President and BankCentre Leader

ST. LOUIS (Oct. 8, 2018) – Christina Dancy has joined Midwest BankCentre as assistant vice president and leader of the bank's Pagedale branch. Midwest BankCentre Chairman and CEO Jim Watson made the announcement.

As branch leader, Dancy cultivates relationships with new and existing customers, fosters a positive work environment and focuses on branch growth. She also serves as a community liaison, providing financial education to area residents and business owners and by partnering with community organizations to help their members achieve their financial goals. Current partners include the Heartland St. Louis Black Chamber of Commerce, Beyond Housing, Prosperity Connection, Grace Hill Women's Business Center and the St. Louis Regional Unbanked Taskforce.

Prior to joining Midwest BankCentre, Dancy was assistant vice president at U.S. Bank Community Development Corporation.

Dancy earned her bachelor's degree in public policy and administration at the University of Missouri-St. Louis and her master's degree in management and leadership at Webster University. She is a certified anti-money laundering compliance specialist (CAMS) and is an alumna of Focus St. Louis' Diversity Leadership Fellowship

A 2018 recipient of the St. Louis American's Salute to Young Leaders Award, she is a member of the Regional Business Council's Young Professionals Network-Leadership 100. She serves as a board member of Dream Builders 4 Equity and previously served on the board of Lutheran Family & Children's Services. Dancy also is a member of the Urban League Guild of Metropolitan St. Louis and the St. Louis

Diversity and Inclusion Consortium. She supports the United Way of Greater St. Louis as a member of the Charmaine Chapman Leadership Society Cabinet.