J.P. Jercinovic Promoted to VP-Business Development Officer at Midwest BankCentre

ST. LOUIS (Dec. 14, 2021) --- J.P. Jercinovic has been promoted to vice president-business development officer at Midwest BankCentre.

Jercinovic was formerly BankCentre Leader at the bank's Fenton branch. He will build upon his customer service leadership, relationship development and sales skills as he helps small business owners choose and access optimal banking solutions. With more than 14 years of banking experience, his expertise extends to small business loan and deposit products and other banking-related business services. Jercinovic joined Midwest BankCentre in 2016.

"J.P. brings strong values-focused relationship skills to our clients and our team, amplified by a great passion for customer service and sales," said Danny Pogue, president of commercial, retail and small business banking. "As he expands our services to more small business customers, his people-oriented approach will be a meaningful differentiator for our clients."

Jercinovic graduated from Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau, Mo., with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a focus on marketing management.
